

THE WINE LIST AT ASHFORD CASTLE

Since 1228, Ashford Castle has welcomed some of the most discerning guests through its prestigious doors. The underground coal cellars at Ashford Castle date back to the 17th century, which in 2015 was transformed into a world class, state of the art wine cellar. Today, we have an incomparable cellar of over 3,500 bottles, which is temperature and humidity controlled perfectly. This is where we also offer unique private wine tastings with one of our expert sommeliers through appointment each afternoon.

One of the most exciting additions to our list in recent years is the inclusion of the wines from our winery, Bouchard Finlayson, set up in 1989. Collaboration has always been a part of this wine estate, which is today owned by the Tollman family of The Red Carnation Hotel Collection and collaboratively run by Victoria Tollman and Peter Finlayson.

Peter Finlayson is highly credited with being the pioneer of Pinot Noir in South Africa and placing the Walker Bay area on the country's wine map, setting up and operating the first modern day winery in the glorious Hemel-en-Aarde Valley. Under the savvy leadership of Victoria Tollman and Peter Finlayson, Bouchard Finlayson's flagship 'Galpin Peak' Pinot Noir and the iconic 'Tête de Cuvée Galpin Peak' Pinot Noir have become recognised on a global scale, being the recipient of many international accolades for their wines through the years. Our menus offer us the opportunity to showcase the fabulous wines of Bouchard Finlayson by the glass with each of Chef Farineau's innovative food creations. We are also very fortunate to have access to Mr. Tollman's private cellars in London and look forward to developing our cellars here at Ashford Castle as part of The Red Carnation Hotel collection.

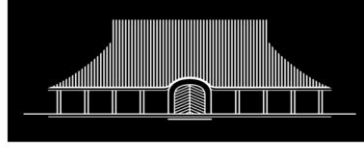

The 'Wine Geese' are also passionately represented throughout our wine portfolio. These wines are produced in the many wine regions of the world by families of Irish ancestry. From Old World classics such as Chateau Leoville Barton and Lynch-Bages in Bordeaux to New World champions such as Chateau Montelena at the top of the Napa Valley, there is an array of world class wines that have an Irish flair behind them. The dedicated sommelier team at Ashford Castle will be more than pleased to guide you through our wine list or arrange a complimentary private tour of our state of the art wine cellar to assist you in choosing wine for your evening dinner.

BOUCHARD FINLAYSON

A BOUTIQUE VINEYARD

Hannibal

An Italian/French inspired blend of Sangiovese, Pinot Noir, Nebbiolo, Shiraz, Mourvedre and Barbera. Matured for 16 months in French oak (30% first fill), red cherry, flowers, a whiff of truffle on the nose with a hint of spice. Tannins are velvety and offer a slow pronounced aromatic finish.

Galpin Peak Pinot Noir

A wine inspired by both winemaker and location - offering a true reflection of the terroir. Barrel-matured for 10 months in French oak (30% first fill), rich with luscious soft tannins and dark coloured forest fruits, deftly balanced on a cord of lingering plum and raspberry delights.

Tête de Cuvée Pinot Noir

It is said that Pinot noir has no individual varietal character of its own but, is rather characterized by the soil on which it grows. Essentially it is the most terroir specific varietal of all. This label gives the winemaker an opportunity to select a handful of the finest Pinot noir barrels in the cellar and blend these to acquire a wine which will portray the best of the vintage. Barrel maturation of 15 months in new French oak, pure aromas of raspberry, cherry, flowers and spice, musky suggestions of truffle and forest floor.

405 Bouchard Finlayson Blanc de Mer Riesling Blend 2015 per glass €10.50
per bottle €39.00

A lovely glass of wine as an aperitif or to match our seafood. Reminiscent of the fresh styles of white wine found in the Loire but an intriguing blend of Riesling with Viognier, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Semillon and Chenin Blanc.

404 Bouchard Finlayson Walker Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2015 per glass €12.50
per bottle €49.00

The geographic location of the winery, lying within five kilometres of the cool Atlantic Ocean offers the best temperature zone that the Cape can contribute to a strong vibrant aroma, tropical fruits of pineapple, lychee and passion fruit.

403 Bouchard Finlayson Sans Barrique Chardonnay 2015 per glass €12.50
per bottle €49.00

The rich characteristic of this wine stems from clay based soils at the vineyard location in the Elandskloof Valley of Villiersdorp. This unoaked version of chardonnay has an emphatic fruit purity, minerality and length from tantalizingly luscious acidity. Strong hints of peach and kiwi fruit with a few drops of lemon.

401 Bouchard Finlayson Crocodile's Lair Chardonnay 2015 per glass €14.00
per bottle €55.00

Prepared in the classic Burgundian fashion and then matured 'sur lie' for eight months in traditional 228 litre pieces. Packed with minerality, tight fruit flavours of pear, peaches and lychees resting on over-laying hints of oak, vanilla and autolized yeasts. Strong nutty components will evolve over time to create complexity and enhanced flavours.

402 Bouchard Finlayson Missionvale Chardonnay 2015 per glass €15.00
per bottle €60.00

Chardonnay is about as close to a sure thing as you get in the wine world! This vintage of Missionvale is not an exception. Once again characterised by a relatively soft finished and seamless mouth feel. Aromatic with flowery vanilla tones, structured on a golden layer of apricot and loquat fine flavours. Maturation will enhance its personality.

761 Bouchard Finlayson, Hannibal 2015 per glass €18.75
per bottle €75.00

In the International arena of winemaking, with the exception of the “Super Tuscans” the blending of French and Italian grape varieties is a rare occurrence. Perhaps being so geographically removed from historical origins of such varietals makes these options so much more approachable. Four years of experimentation secured the background to this, the Hannibal blend.

In this instance the blend consists of 52% Sangiovese, 17% Pinot Noir, 15% Nebbiolo, 8% Mourvèdre, 6% Shiraz, and 2% Barbera. The excitement of Hannibal is about the different grape varieties and their resulting “taste colours”. These entire individual portions have been matured in best French oak barrels - in some instances for eighteen months.

762 Bouchard Finlayson, Galpin Peak Pinot Noir 2013 per glass €21.00
per bottle €85.00

A wine inspired by both winemaker and location - offering a true reflection of the terroir. Barrel-matured for 10 months in French oak (30% first fill), rich with luscious soft tannins and dark coloured forest fruits, deftly balanced on a cord of lingering plum and raspberry delights.

763 Bouchard Finlayson, Tête de Cuvée, Galpin Peak Pinot Noir 2010 per glass €40.00
per bottle €160.00

Pinot Noir arguably plays its biggest role in the arena of winemaking as the major component of French Champagne. Fine red wines made from Pinot Noir have their respect from selective sites on the Hills of Gold in Burgundy, France. In the Hemel-en-Aarde Valley near Hermanus the Pinot Noir grape enjoys consistent success which offers undeniable support for the claim that the valley is Africa’s benchmark location for this fine grape variety. To build on these ideal conditions the winemaker has taken advantage of this opportunity to make a special blend by utilizing the best barrels in the cellar for a smaller unique bottling! These limited release bottlings are called Tête de Cuvée.

The Wine Geese & the Wines of Ireland

Ireland's Wine Geese is derived from the flight of the Wild Geese when 14,000 Catholic Jacobite soldiers fled Ireland for France for political and economic reasons after their defeat at the 1690 Battle of the Boyne and the Treaty of Limerick in 1691.

They had supported England's Catholic King James against the victorious Protestant Dutch Prince William of Orange who vied for the monarchy in England. Following punitive banishments and land confiscations, two more waves of emigrants left Ireland's shores for Bordeaux and Nantes in France in 1715 and 1745.

Some traveled on French ships smuggling wine into the west coast of Ireland and listed on the ships' manifests as "Wild Geese."

Many soldiers and their immediate descendants flourished as merchants, traders and later owning properties, estates, and vineyards around the city's port of Bordeaux.

Fourteen Chateaux' vineyards in Bordeaux bear an Irish name including Phelan-Segur, Boyd-Cantenac, Leoville-Barton, Langoa-Barton, Kirwan, MacCarthy-Moula, Lynch-Bages, Pontac-Lynch, Lynch-Moussas, Dillon and Clarke. Today, the Irish influence on vineyards is vast throughout the Old & New World.

Champagne

1764 Champagne Lanson Père et Fils NV

Lanson Père et Fils is a brand-new, enriched evolution of the classic Lanson Black Label Brut, and is named after the first bottle of Champagne Lanson ever produced. For this special cuvée, the House of Lanson has taken a unique selection of grapes with a blend of at least five different years, and is aged for at least four years. This champagne is rich and structured with honey notes, rounded finesse, elegance, and layers of complexity.

Per glass €19.50

Per bottle €95.00
